

1. Replace all text and letters with your text (there is a slight inconvenience in this, but the result will be great). You can use one word (text logo) in the whole project, changing the order of the letter. For convenience, use the font of the project, and then you can change to your font. 2. Change font color at your discretion.

All layers of text are yellow

